All three-dimensional work will be considered for both spaces while two-dimensional pieces can only be showcased at the Winchester Gallery. Clark County galleries cannot exhibit works containing offensive language or which contain overt sexual content or imagery (including nudity).

The Winchester Cultural Center houses Clark County Parks and Recreation's only theater and hosts concerts, recitals, fine arts and fitness classes and senior activities throughout the year. Two- and three-dimensional works, along with media-based and installation works, will be considered for this space. The center is open from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Tuesday through Friday and 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturdays. The center is closed on Sundays and Mondays. Artists chosen for the Winchester Gallery will be paid an honorarium of $200 to conduct a workshop to be coordinated with Winchester Cultural Center.

The Clark County Government Center Rotunda Gallery, 500 S. Grand Central Parkway near downtown Las Vegas, houses general administrative offices of Clark County government, chambers for the Board of Commissioners, a variety of special purpose spaces and an amphitheater in the courtyard. Only three-dimensional work will be considered for this space. Proposals that require electrical power or display walls will not be considered. Large-scale floor works are encouraged, but the selected project may in no way interfere with the day-to-day operation of the building or compromise public safety. The proposed project or work must be able to withstand the wear and tear of being in a public space for seven to eight weeks. A visit by the artist to the space is encouraged before exhibit conception and submission. Artists chosen for the Rotunda Gallery will be paid an honorarium of $500 for materials, and to give a public talk about their art.
