As your State Treasurer, one of the most gratifying aspects of my job is returning money to its rightful owner.

Operation Claim It! is a concerted effort by my Unclaimed Property Division to locate the rightful owners of unclaimed property that is presently being held for safekeeping.

Unclaimed property includes many financial instruments, including the contents of abandoned safe deposit boxes. The contents of these safe deposit boxes are delivered to the Unclaimed Property Division for safekeeping by Nevada financial institutions.

To check to see if you or a relative might have unclaimed property to which you are the rightful owner or heir, simply go to NevadaTreasurer.gov/UPSearch/ and type in your name or that of a relative to search for any other unclaimed property which may rightfully belong to you. You can also call my office at (702) 486-4140.

I sincerely hope that Operation Claim It! can provide you with your own personal stimulus package!

With Respect,

Kate Marshall - State Treasurer
