Under Correspondence; Wade read from the agenda, Zappos.com Rock 'n' Roll Las Vegas Marathon and ½ Marathon to benefit the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of America on Sunday, December 2. Meggan went over the route of the race and stated she had some flyers.

Under Public Comment; Karin Marshall asked if there was any thing heard about the bathrooms, Meggan responded no. Karin also wanted to express some opinions of the possibility of pit toilets, she feels that Sandy Valley is unlike Blue Diamond and the water issue should not be a problem since we do not have tourist. She also asked that before the subject is finalized that there be two consecutive meetings regarding the restrooms so that the community knows what they are getting and have input on it. Karin also asked how we, the community, would find Parks and Recreation's Budget. Meggan, unsure, stated that she would find out. Greg Neff made a comment on the pit toilets maintenance. Meggan explained that it was not definite how the restroom plans would go, but she will definitely let them know our opinions. Karin announced that Goodsprings had their 100th year celebration and the Pioneer Saloon is offering access to their time capsule for a $25.00 donation. Wade announced he will not be attending the November CAC meeting.

The next "regular" meeting is Tuesday, November 13, 2012 unless there is a special call meeting required.

Wade adjourned the meeting at 7:55 pm.
