

Ryan L. Dennett, Esq. is one of four Citizen Members of the Air Pollution Control Hearing Board. He was appointed by the Clark County Commissioners on November 17, 2015. Mr. Dennett received his undergraduate education at Southern Utah University and attended law School at the J. Ruben Clark Law School at Brigham Young University. Mr. Dennett is a practicing civil litigation attorney located in Las Vegas and practicing throughout Nevada and Utah. He is a Partner at the firm of Dennett Winspear, which was founded in 2002. He was admitted to the Nevada Bar in 1995 and has practiced continually in Nevada since that time.

Mr. Dennett has lectured in continuing legal education settings on insurance litigation, insurance bad faith, ethics and trial strategy. Mr. Dennett researched and published an article on Las Vegas' claims to water in the Virgin River under the Colorado River Compact while in law school. Mr. Dennett has practiced before many Nevada State Administrative Boards representing clients with administrative matters and citations.

Mr. Dennett is an avid outdoorsman and spends significant time enjoying the mountains, deserts and lakes around Las Vegas and throughout Nevada. Mr. Dennett is the president of the Las Vegas Chapter of an international sporting organization and participates as a board member on his home owners association. Mr. Dennett is an active leader in Boy Scouts of America. His term expires October 6, 2017.