

Evan S. Wishengrad, Esq. is the Attorney Member of the Air Pollution Control Hearing Board and currently serves as Board Vice-Chair. He was appointed by the Clark County Board of County Commissioners (BCC) on November 5, 2013. Mr. Wishengrad is Managing Partner of Prestige Law Group, a local Las Vegas law firm concentrating its civil law practice in matters involving litigation, real estate, business, and personal injury. Mr. Wishengrad previously held an Administrative Law Judge position with the State of Nevada, Real Estate Division, Commission for Common Interest Communities and Condominium Hotels, and for the past five years has served as a BCC-appointed member to the Lone Mountain Citizens' Advisory Council, holding two year term positions of Chairperson and Vice Chairperson.

Prior to attending law school, Mr. Wishengrad obtained both his B.S.B.A. in Finance and Real Estate from the Lied Institute for Real Estate Studies at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas and his Nevada Real Estate Broker-Salesman's license. Additionally, he worked as a Senior Associate with the former Big 5 public accounting and consulting firm of Coopers & Lybrand, now known as PriceWaterhouseCoopers, in its Financial Advisory Services division, assisting numerous corporate clients with their business, financial, real estate, and environmental needs.

In addition to his administrative responsibilities at Prestige Law Group, Mr. Wishengrad actively practices law and dedicates his spare time to volunteering with other local Nevadans to help improve the standard of living and quality of life in the Las Vegas valley and surrounding locale. His term as Attorney Member of the Air Pollution Control Hearing Board expires July 24, 2015.
