Re: Electrical Identification Cards

Master & Journeyman Test

The Journeyman and Master Clark County Identification card testing program through the International Code Council has been updated for the 2008 NEC. ICC will convert to the 2008 NEC for Clark County ID card testing effective September 1, 2010.

Low Voltage Technician Identification Card

The testing program has been completed for the Low Voltage Technician Identification Card and it will also be available effective September 1, 2010. Testing will be for categories in Chapter 7 and Chapter 8 of the 2008 NEC. The effective date of enforcement of the Low Voltage Technician requirements will be determined later and posted in advance.

For more information about the Low Voltage Technician card, please visit the Clark County Master and Journeyman Card Programs page on our website.
