RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF ACKNOWLEDGING PATERNITY

BY SIGNING THIS AFFIDAVIT OF PATERNITY:

1. You are acknowledging that you are the biological father of the child which, after 60 days, creates a legal determination that you are the father.
2. There will be no hearing or trial held on the issue of paternity at this time.
3. You have a duty to financially support the child, which is a separate issue from visitation and custody of the child.
4. A court may order you to pay child support for the child until the child reaches 18 years of age, or 19 if still in high school, or otherwise declared free from your parental control by a court.
5. A court may order the withholding or assignment of your wages or commissions.
6. A court may order you to furnish health insurance for the child.
7. A court may order you to pay reasonable expenses of the mother's pregnancy and confinement costs which include birth expenses and public assistance provided on behalf of the child.
8. You have rights concerning custody and visitation of the child. Please be advised that physical custody of the child is generally granted to the biological unwed mother. If both father and mother cannot agree to an arrangement for visitation and/or custody, then you must pursue a separate legal action through the courts. You may need to hire a private attorney to assist you.
9. Unless you can show special circumstances, under Nevada law you may not be able to petition the court to declare that you are not the biological father of the child. You may need to hire a private attorney to assist you.
10. This affidavit of paternity can be revoked or rescinded within 60 days after the filing with the state registrar or within 60 days after you turn 18 years old, whichever is later. However, your name will remain on the birth certificate until a court declares that you are not the biological father of the child.
