A township is normally 6 miles wide by 6 miles deep and is divided into 36 sections.

Typical Division of a Section into Aliquot Parts

The description of this parcel would read: The south half of the north east quarter of the southeast quarter of section 9.