In 2011, a number of misdemeanor cases were transferred to the Office of Appointed Counsel resulting in a higher than normal number of resolved cases. The Office of Appointed Counsel, which provides representation when the Public Defender's Office is unable to due to conflicts of interest, provided counsel in a majority of DUI and Domestic Violence misdemeanor cases from 2011 to 2013. In 2013, the Public Defender's Office will provide representation to a number of DUI and Domestic Violence misdemeanors.

On May 1, 2013, the Public Defender's Office will begin staffing both DUI courts and the Domestic Violence court leading to an increase in misdemeanor caseload.
