If you are currently unemployed, having difficulty making bill payments, or are interested in advancing your career, Goodwill is currently providing complimentary services to our community. The Goodwill team is presently offering informational sessions at 9:00am on Monday's and Wednesday's. After these sessions, there will be workshops that focus on specific areas to help you in your job search: resume building, interviewing techniques, etiquette classes, and more. If you would like additional mentoring after the workshops, Goodwill will partner you with an employment specialist who will walk you through the hiring process.

Goodwill offers:

- Access to computers for job searches
- Access to copier, fax, and phone for job seekers
- Access to job boards
- Customized assistance with job search and job leads
- Advice on resume development and interview skills
- Assistance with vocational training
- Funding for work cards (TAM, Sheriff's, etc.) or Background checks
- Interview clothes
- Mock interviews
- Bus passes/gas cards
- Referrals to other agencies for child care or food
- Rental assistance

If you have a child support case open and would like to participate, please call (702) 671-9200 or email DAFSjobassist@clarkcountyda.com with your name, case number, telephone number, and date you would like to attend.
