Judge Stefany A. Miley was born and raised in Austin, Texas. Judge Miley graduated from Texas A&M University in 1993 with degrees in Journalism and Marketing and was a member of the National Journalism Honor Society, Kappa Tau Alpha.

Upon graduation, Judge Miley commenced law school at California Western School of Law in San Diego, California wherein she entered into an accelerated program graduating in just two years, with Honors Distinctions. Judge Miley was also selected as Who's Who of American Law Students. As part of her law studies, Judge Miley completed a clerkship with the Honorable Nancy C. Oesterle, Justice Court, Las Vegas Township. Following the clerkship, Judge Miley commenced her law career in Las Vegas wherein she enjoyed diverse practice areas including civil litigation, probate and estate litigation, family law, criminal law, and juvenile law.

Currently, Judge Miley is a District Court Judge for Family Division, Department F. After winning a contested primary and general election, Judge Miley was elected to this seat in November 2004 and took the bench in January 2005. The same year as taking the bench, Judge Miley presided over the Court's first transcontinental trial, allowing a bed confined litigant access to the Courthouse through a two way video link using court cameras and the internet.

Judge Miley is a member of the State Bar of Nevada, and the Clark County Bar Association. Additionally, Judge Miley has also been involved with numerous local charities including Junior League of Las Vegas. Through the Junior League Judge Miley helped to raise money for numerous charities including HELP of Southern Nevada, Channel 10 Ready to Learn and the Ronald McDonald House.

Additionally, Judge Miley assisted in authoring and passing the Safe Haven for Babies Legislation which gives parents a safe, additional option for unwanted children. Judge Miley has also been involved with the Jean Nidetch Women's Center and UMC Children's Miracle Network. As a mother of school age twins, Judge Miley is also involved in numerous programs through the Clark County Schools and local sports associations.
