Nevada law requires first-time registrants who registered to vote prior to January 1, 2006 and did not provide identification at the time they registered to provide identification when they vote in person for the first time or request a mail ballot. Forms of current and valid identification include a Nevada Driver's License, Nevada I.D. Card, military identification card OR a copy of a current utility bill, bank statement, paycheck, or document issued by a government entity, listing the registrant's name and residential address.

Nevada and federal law require first-time registrants who registered after December 31, 2005 and provided an identifying number (Nevada driver's license number or the last four digits of their social security number) that did not match the records maintained by the Department of Motor Vehicles or Social Security Administration to present identification. Forms of current and valid identification include a Nevada Driver's License, Nevada I.D. Card, military identification card OR a copy of a current utility bill, bank statement, paycheck, or document issued by a government entity, listing the registrant's name and residential address. These individuals have been notified by mail of this requirement.

Registration for electors for the 2012 General Election will be closed after 9:00 p.m. Tuesday, October 16, 2012.
