Medical Information

There will be a Registered Nurse in residence at to handle most medical situations. If your child has a medical condition that requires special attention, please contact us prior to camp at 455-1905 so that we can notify the nurse. You will also meet with the nurse during check-in at camp.

The nurse cannot dispense over-the-counter medicine, such as Tylenol or Pepto Bismol, unless you have provided it for your child and listed it on this form.

Altitude Sickness: The elevation at camp is 8,000 feet, which may cause headaches due to altitude sickness during the first days of camp. We recommend drinking plenty of water for several days before camp and while at camp to help prevent the effects of altitude sickness.

Clark County Parks and Recreation

Commonly Asked Questions About Resident Camps

How old should my child be before I send them to an overnight camp?

You should actually look at a number of factors:

- *Have they spent the night away from home successfully prior to this experience?
- *Are they clingy at night - do they often have bad dreams or wake up frequently?
- *Do they want to go to camp, or do they express fear and concern over going away?

We have set preliminary age guidelines for camp; however, some children are ready for camp at age four and some not until they are ten or eleven years old.

Camper Housing

Between 16 -18 campers are assigned to each dormitory-style cabin. Each cabin group has two counselors. The cabins have bunk beds. Restroom/shower facility is in a different building. Boys & girls stay in separate cabins, and cabins are assigned by age.

What happens if my child gets homesick?

Homesickness is a very common reaction for children, and probably over half of our campers will feel some degree of homesickness! Sometimes these feelings are magnified for a child who isn't feeling well or is overly tired. If it's a feeling that comes and goes, or only affects the camper for a short period of time, some extra attention from their camp counselor will probably take care of it. However, if the homesickness feelings continue and interfere with the camper's ability to enjoy the camp experience, we will go through a three-step process:

1. Counselors, trained on how to deal with homesickness, will begin by talking with the camper, encouraging him/her to stick it out, reminding them of all the fun activities still to come.
2. If the feelings continue, the counselor will bring the camper to our Camp Director or the Nurse who will continue to try to help the child work out the feelings of homesickness.
3. The last resort is to have the Camp Director contact the child's parents or guardians. Sometimes a call to home can solve the problem, but not always. At this point, the parents and the Camp Director will work out the best solution for the individual child. (It is our hope that the camper will stay, however only if it is in his or her best interest.)

What if my child gets ill or injured while at camp?

We have a Registered Nurse on site during all camp sessions. In the event that a camper becomes ill or injured, the nurse will assess the situation based on the following:

- Can the child be treated at camp?
- Do the parents need to pick up their child and possibly seek further treatment?
- Does the child need to be transported to a hospital by EMS?
- Is the child contagious?

If the camp medical staff determines that a camper's acute health status warrants further medical attention or observation, the parent/guardian will be required to pick up the camper. A responsible adult must be available for camper pick-up within 4 hours of notification. If the health status improves, the camper will be allowed to return to camp after 24 hours.

Remember to turn in all prescription and over-the-counter medication to the nurse during check-in at camp. All medication should be in its original container, labeled with your child's name. The nurse can only give medication that you have provided for your child.

Do I need to send any money up to camp with my child?

No. The camp does not have a store. A professional caterer provides three full meals a day and a snack. The camp t-shirt is also included in the camp fee, so there is no reason to send money. Also, please do not send jewelry or other expensive items that might be lost.

(More information on back)

Who are the camp staff?

Resident camp staff include a camp director, Registered Nurse, camp supervisor, counselors and teaching faculty (Arts & Omni). All staff must pass a criminal background check.

Can I call my child or visit them at camp?

We don't recommend it, since it can contribute to homesickness in your child and even in other campers. If a parent calls or requests a visit, we will allow it. If the child is ill or having difficulty adjusting to camp, the Camp Director or Nurse will contact a parent/guardian.

Can I drop off my child after the check-in time or pick them up early?

Yes, but please notify us in advance.

Are there any discounts for families who send more than one child?

We are unable to provide these discounts, since the camp fees collected are used to cover all camp costs.

Can my child stay in the same cabin with their friends?

There is a place on the application to list a roommate preference. We try to accommodate roommate requests, however cabins are assigned by age.

Why is it necessary for my child to have a physical exam and up-to-date immunizations?

It is a common practice for resident camps to have these requirements, in order to protect your child and others from the spread of contagious disease. Please contact us in advance if you need assistance. We can provide you with locations/times for low and no cost clinics. Remember the medical release/exam form must be signed by a physician and returned to us by June 2, 2008.

Mail form to: CCPR Resident Camps, 4701 N. Durango, Las Vegas, NV 89129.

Meals

Meals are served buffet style by a professional catering service. Vegetarian options are available. If your child has a special diet or food allergy, please notify us in advance. Counselors supervise campers during meals and observe to make sure they are eating properly.

What do they do at camp?

Omni Camp: Campers attend four to five 50-minute classes each day, Monday-Friday. They attend classes in coed learning groups with children their own age (Approx. 18 campers in each group). Classes are interactive with minimal lecture.

Classes are taught in the following general subjects: Visual(or Performing) Art, Outdoor Experiential Education, Science, Cultural Arts, and Nature Education. Class content changes each year to offer new adventures in learning and discovery to our returning campers

During the afternoons and evenings, campers participate in traditional camp activities that include: Arts & Crafts, Games, Skits, Scavenger Hunt, Hikes and Campfires.

Classes are subject to change.*

On the Edge Camp: The schedule is different each day for this camp. Teens participate in outdoor recreation activities such as mountain biking, high/low ropes challenge course, orienteering and survival skills, hiking, archery, crafts, games and a one-night camp out in tents. (Tents are provided.) This camp also includes a dance on Thursday evening. Dress for the dance is casual.

What if my child or I have more questions?

Please contact the Mountain Crest staff at 455-1905. We will be more than happy to answer any questions you have. Sending your child to camp for a week is a big decision, and we want to make it as easy as possible for your family.

Discipline Guidelines

In the event that a camper is not following camp policies/misbehaving, a four-step disciplinary process will be utilized*. (Some examples of misbehavior include but are not limited to: disruption of an activity/class, use of profanity, inappropriate touching, disrespect for other campers/staff, fighting, and use of illegal drugs)

1. First offense: staff will talk to the camper and explain what the problem is and suggest appropriate ways to solve it.
2. If the undesirable behavior continues, a time-out will be given and the staff member will document the situation.
3. If the problem continues, the counselor will talk with the Camp Director to assess the situation. Another time-out will be given, with the possibility of loss of privileges for a longer specified time.
4. If the camper does not respond to the first 3 steps, the Director may phone parents and discuss discipline options, including, but not limited to, sending the camper home. In the event that a camper is sent home, there will be no refunds.

 In a situation involving a more serious infraction or illegal activity (ex: illegal substances, possession of weapons, endangering others, etc.), the Director may move directly to Step #4. In matters of illegal activity authorities will be contacted in addition to parents. Camper's belongings may be subject to search. If this is deemed necessary, every effort will be made to contact parents/guardians first.*

Thank you for assisting us in providing an environment in which all children may enjoy the camp experience.

Directions to Camp Lee Canyon:

Camp Phone: 872-5489

Allow at least one hour of travel time from the Las Vegas area. Camp Lee Canyon is located on Lee Canyon Rd., about 45 miles northwest of Las Vegas at an elevation of over 8,000 feet. There are no gas stations or convenience stores on Mt. Charleston, so it is best to fill up before driving up the mountain. In the summer months, it is also a good idea to bring drinking water in case you car breaks down. There is no cellular phone service in the camp area.

To get to Camp Lee Canyon, travel north along US 95 about 30 miles from Las Vegas. You will pass the turn off for Mt. Charleston/ Kyle Canyon (Route 157). Keep going on US 95. Turn west (left) at the Lee Canyon turn off (Lee Canyon Rd.) Stay on Lee Canyon Rd. for approximately 15 miles. On this road you will be climbing in elevation from 3,000 feet to 8,000 feet. (This part of the drive can cause overheating in older cars, so watch your temperature gauge. Turning off your air conditioner may help lower your engine temperature.)

As you travel up Lee Canyon Rd, you will pass the turn off you Route 158 and you will also pass the road for Camp Foxtail and the meadow play area. Stay on Camp Lee Rd. Once you have passed those landmarks - you're almost there! The entrance to Camp Lee Canyon is on the left side of the road. The camp is set back off the road but is marked with a sign. Turn left into the camp, just before the McWilliams campground and the Lee Canyon ski area.
