JANUARY, FEBRUARY, MARCH VISUAL ART Clark County Government Center Rotunda Gallery

January 9 through March 3, 2017 "I Want to See"

Krystal Ramirez

Handwritten panels reflect on hedonism and our mixed feelings about it. The artist will stitch stories together to create large panels reminiscent of Eva Hesse's latex panels. Light from the windows will illuminate the paper so the handwriting will offer up different patterns for the eyes to investigate and the viewer to ponder.

Reception and Artist Talk, Friday, January 13, 6-8 PM

March 13 through May 5, 2017

Maureen Calligan

The artist will install a spread of lush astro-turf with a variety of wire frame lawn chairs which the artist will make with specifically colored plaid patterns out of nylon strapping, which will allude to colors found in the Las Vegas landscape.

Reception and Artist Talk, Friday, March 17, 6-8 p.m.

Winchester Cultural Center Gallery

November 14 through January 5 "Tethered"

Gail Gilbert

Wind is portrayed in sculptural form in Gail Gilbert's Winchester Gallery exhibit. The fabric sculptures appear to be in the midst of a gust of air, evoking emotion and capturing the ethereality of wind.

Artist Reception: Friday, November 18, 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

January 17 through February 23, 2017

Lance Smith

New work consisting of large scale mixed media drawings and oil paintings. These pieces will be based strongly in self-portraiture and use imagery common to ethnic folklore and mythology.

Reception and Artist Talk Date: Friday, January 13, 6-8 PM
