Seniors Live Olympic Dreams in Competition Sixth Annual Laughlin Senior Games Run Oct. 16-19

The Sixth Annual Laughlin Senior Games brings friendly competition to the desert Oct. 16-19 at the Mountain View Park, 1975 Arie Ave. in Laughlin. Since the event is not a state, regional or national qualifier, the competition is for pure fun and camaraderie. Seniors from all over Clark County are welcome to participate. Registration is $10 with an additional $5 per event. Minimal additional fees also will be collected for bowling, golf and racquetball events. All registrations must be received by Oct. 3 to qualify.

Seniors ages 50 and older can participate in a wide range of events including tennis, racquetball, horse shoes, bocce, fun walks, pinochle, bridge, poker, basketball skills, golf, waffle golf, track and field, swimming, 8-ball pool, dance, bowling and 5K and 10K runs.

Those interested can call the Clark County Parks and Recreation in Laughlin at 298-3413 or visit the Web site at www.accessclarkcounty.com/parks.
