

Our Centennial

John C. Fremont. Kit Carson

Put Big Springs on the map

Mormons built a fort

Two miles from the springs resort

In 1855

Eldorado has gold mining

The Virgin River sprouts Bunkerville

In the 1870's

The railroad starts a town

About the time Clark County came around

With a population of 4,859

Our Centennial

Born in 1909

We've come a long way in that time

One hundred phenomenal years

Clark County has no peers

A better place is hard to find

The railroad closes down

Hundreds in the unemployment line

Gambling becomes legalized

The Boulder Dam Act Coolidge signs

Prohibition had it's time

Roosevelt dedicates the Dam in '35
