X. PUBLIC COMMENTS/COMMUNITY CONCERNS:

Michael Reese: Formerly the Oasis Gun Club in Mesquite, Nevada, has re-opened as Smoking Gun Range. First Sporting Clay event is scheduled for January 23, 2016.

Comment by Steve Carmichael – NSCA is not supposed to book registered events that conflict with each other. (It was later determined the Smoking Gun shoot date is January 16, 2016, the 3rd Saturday of the month)

Michael Reese: Discussed importance of facility appearing in “Sporting Clays”, a magazine that’s extremely popular with sporting clays shooters nationwide. CCSC monthly schedule appears there. Michael noted there was very little information regarding the Safari Club International’s Boy Scouts benefit event.

Response Steve Carmichael: They (Safari Club) have to conform to what the County requires to have their flyers displayed on County domains. You’ll notice the flyers on our website and facebook page clearly define the Shooting Complex as the facility host, and also clearly defines the tournament host. If Safari Club does not provide us with a properly formatted flyer we’re unable to place it on our sites.

Michael Reese: Discussion and statements continue reference high school shooting sports and linking Shooting Complex events onto Facebook.

Tom Cost: Would like the contact information for the NSSF “First Shots Program” as I would like to Volunteer.

Response Steve Carmichael: Don Turner of NV Firearms Coalition, and Dan Lord of Silver State Shooters.
