CLUB READ: SUMMER FUN FOR KIDS AND TEENS

A Free Program Designed For Kids and Teens to Read, Earn Prizes and Have Fun

Las Vegas, NV – Registration for the Las Vegas-Clark County Library District's Club Read begins Saturday, June 1 and continues through Saturday, August 3.

Stop by any library branch to pick up a reading log or register online at www.lvccld.org. Children from birth to 11 years of age have one log, and teens in grades six and up have a different log just for them.

Kids and teens can earn prizes by keeping track of their reading. Every child who signs up for Club Read will get a membership card and a special wallet to put it in!

All participants earn a Book Buck for every five books that are read aloud to them or they read on their own. They can exchange the Book Buck at any Library District Foundation Used Bookstore for a book of their choice. After they read 20 books, they'll earn a special prize!

Entertaining programs throughout the District will help toddlers, children and teens enjoy the summer, such as a theatrical adaptation of The Secret Garden, a Fratello Marionettes performance of Aladdin, Tony Daniels magic show, storyteller Jim Cogan, storytimes, music, yoga and more.

Co-sponsored by Las Vegas-Clark County Library District Foundation, Cox Communications and Arcata Associates.

Highlights of free programs include:
