

The following upcoming events will take place at the Springs Preserve in December. For more information about events at the Springs Preserve, please call (702) 822-7700.

Holiday Spectacular at the Springs Preserve

December 3-4, 10-11 and 17-23, 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Bask in the glow of thousands of colorful, eco-friendly LED lights at this family-friendly celebration that features tasty treats, holiday arts and crafts, train and reindeer (pony) rides, and, of course, photos with Santa. All activities are included with full admission. Admission is $8 for adults, $5 for children 5 to 12 and free for children 4 and under. Members receive 50 percent off admission. For more information, call (702) 822-7700.

Night at the Museum: The Polar Express at the Springs Preserve

Friday, December 16, 6:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m.

Parents looking for a few holiday shopping hours—without children in tow—will have that chance when the Springs Preserve hosts the kids-only Night at the Museum event. Parents can drop off their children at the Springs Preserve for a safe night of entertainment, including a screening of the popular holiday film, "The Polar Express." During the event, children can make holiday crafts, explore the Origen Museum's exhibits, and enjoy a pizza dinner and snacks. Admission is $25 per child (ages 5 to 12). Reservations are required. Registration deadline is December 14. Only 125 spots are available for this event on a first-come, first-served basis. For more information, call (702) 822-7700.

The Scoop on Poop! at the Springs Preserve

Now through January 8, 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

"The Scoop on Poop!" is a fun and fascinating exhibit that invites children of all ages to learn a lot about animals by what they leave behind. Admission is free for members or with paid general admission. For more information, call (702) 822-7700.

Wings Over the Springs at the Springs Preserve

Every Saturday and Sunday in December, 11:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m.

Soar with the raptors at the Springs Preserve! The "Wings over the Springs" show engages visitors in live interaction with hawk eagles, falcons, owls and more during dramatic free-flight presentations. Shows take place at 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. every Saturday and Sunday and Clark County School District holidays. Admission is free for members or with paid general admission. For more information, call (702) 822-7700.
