All Men age 18

Male citizens and aliens residing in the United States are required by Federal Law to register for Selective Service within 30 days of their 18th birthday. Physically and developmentally challenged individuals also must register. Some flexibility is offered for young men who are psychiatrically hospitalized, but they must then register upon release. Failure to do so can lead to fines, imprisonment, and loss of federal benefits; such as financial aid job corps and other beneficial services. Young men failing to register by their 25th birthday are subject to permanent sanctions of some areas of assistance. If you have a male youth in this age category who has not yet registered, they can do so online, or at any post office. There are also Selective Service registrars at most high schools that are listed on the website below. For more information, go to:
