

Open Lands (OL)

Primary Land Uses

Active and passive recreation, habitat conservation, grazing, and designated military facilities

Supporting Land Uses

May include renewable energy facilities and other appropriate regulated industries.

Characteristics

- Open lands and facilities that are owned and managed by state and federal agencies
- Generally used for habitat conservation and active/passive recreation
- Where designated, may be used for military or other federal purposes

