Check Your Registration Before You Vote

The 2026 General Election begins with early voting during October 17-30 and Election Day on November 3. Take a few minutes now to check your voter registration. Keeping your information current can help you avoid delays when you vote.

Visit www.ClarkCountyNV.gov/vote and log in to Registered Voter Services to review your registration. Check your name, residential address, mailing address, registration status, and more.

If you need to register or update your information, visit RegisterToVote.NV.gov

Have You Moved or Changed Your Name?

If you recently moved or changed your name, check that your voter registration reflects the change. Review both your residential and mailing addresses, especially if you receive mail somewhere other than your home.

What If Your Status Is Inactive?

An inactive status often means the Election Department needs to verify your address. If your status is inactive, update or confirm your address.

You can still vote in person if you meet all other voting requirements.

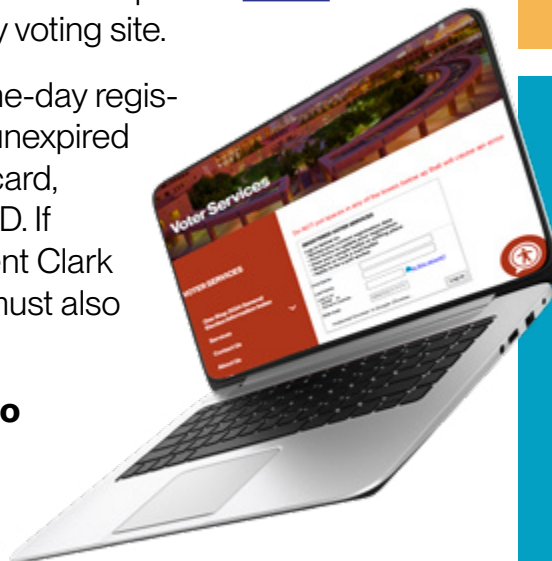

Can You Register When You Vote?

Nevada offers same-day registration and updates online and at any early voting or Election Day voting site.

If you are registering through same-day registration, you must provide a valid, unexpired Nevada driver's license, state ID card, DMV interim document, or Tribal ID. If your ID does not show your current Clark County residential address, you must also provide proof of residency.

Checking now gives you time to correct your information before you vote.

For help, call (702) 455VOTE (8683) or email ELinfo@ClarkCountyNV.gov. ■

Research Your Ballot: A Guide for Clark County Voters

Your sample ballot shows the candidates, contests, and ballot questions you can vote on based on where you live. Reviewing it before you vote gives you time to research your choices and prepare.

Understanding Ballot Questions

Ballot questions ask you to decide on proposed changes to laws, taxes, or other public policies. Before making your choice, read the question and learn what a “Yes” or “No” vote would mean.

Visit www.ClarkCountyNV.gov/Vote and look for our “All Ballot Questions in the 2026 General Election” PDF. It provides information to help you compare both sides, including:

- Arguments for and against each proposal.
- Rebuttals, which respond to the other side’s arguments.
- Financial impact information, which explains possible costs or effects on public funds.

Read both sides and review the financial impact before deciding. Use your sample ballot to identify which questions you can vote on.

Learning About Candidates

Nevada election offices do not publish candidate platforms. Review candidate websites, social media, local news, and community voter guides. Compare sources and consider who provides the information.

You can also contact the political party of your choice for candidate recommendations. Find Nevada political party contacts at: nvsos.gov/organized-political-parties

For candidates who filed with the Clark County Registrar of Voters, you can find available

website links at: clarkcountynv.gov/government/departments/elections/services/cf

Researching Judicial Candidates

Judicial races are nonpartisan, meaning the ballot does not list a political party next to a judicial candidate’s name. Learning about each candidate’s background and experience can help you make your choice.

The Nevada Secretary of State publishes Judicial Candidate Questionnaires. Non-incumbent candidates must complete them; incumbent judges may participate voluntarily. The questionnaires cover candidates’ education, legal experience, professional background, and views on the judiciary.

nvsos.gov/elections/election-information/2026-judicial-candidate-questionnaires

For candidates who currently serve or previously served as judges, you can also review public information from the Nevada Commission on Judicial Discipline, which oversees judicial conduct.

Visit: judicial.nv.gov/Discipline/Commission_Home/

Exploring Campaign Finances

The Nevada Secretary of State’s Campaign Finance portal offers another way to research candidates. Reports show campaign contributions, spending, and certain financial interests for candidates other than federal candidates.

These reports do not rate or endorse candidates. They can help you learn who supports a campaign and how the candidate spends campaign funds. Explore the reports at:

nvsos.gov/SOSCandidateServices

Preparing Before You Vote

Take time to review your sample ballot, compare candidates, and read about ballot questions. Researching ahead of time can help you make informed choices and feel more confident when you vote. ■
