

Apply for a Marriage License

- 1
- Apply online at <https://Weddings.Vegas> (your application will be saved for one year)
  - Both parties must complete their own information, and names must match exactly as shown on the identification that will be presented when appearing in person
  - Be sure to check all spelling, as corrections to marriage documents may result in a fee
  - Once submitted, save your confirmation number and bring it with you

Pick up your Marriage License

- 2
- Together, go to the Clark County Marriage License Bureau
  - No appointment is necessary and it typically takes less than one hour
  - Provide the clerk your confirmation number or names and present your identification
  - Verify all of your information is correct before leaving
  - Pay the $102 fee (convenience fee extra if paid by credit/debit)

Say, “I Do!”

- 3
- If you haven’t already, select a wedding chapel or wedding planner
  - Bring all of your paperwork with you to the ceremony
  - State your vows in front of at least one witness (someone other than the Officiant)
  - The Officiant will file your marriage certificate within ten calendar days (if you need proof of marriage earlier, discuss options with your Officiant)

Show the World You are Married

- 4
- Once filed, your certified marriage certificate can be ordered online or purchased in person
  - Marriage certificates cost $20 for each certified copy
  - If needed, an Apostille can be obtained from the Nevada Secretary of State’s Office (check with your government if you are unsure)
