Fun at the Annual Horse and Rider Costume Contest

The Sandy Valley Playday Association held their annual Horse and Rider Costume Contest on Saturday, October 27th as a part of 2nd show of their winter competition series. The judges had a very hard time deciding on the winners this year because all of the costumes were so creative and well done. But, in the end, the very floral, Terri Hodge, and her mini bumble bee, Stardust, stole the show and took home grand prize - half a ton of hay from 2 Hawk Hay Ranch and a gift certificate to the Pioneer Saloon! Huge thanks to all of the participants and those that donated prizes.

Second Saturday: Artists & Authors

This month's guests will be Jackson the Red Rock Burro and friends. While a visit from Jackson is always exciting, this month is extra special because he will be "signing" his new children's book with his specially made hoof print stamp. Stop by the Red Rock Canyon Visitor Center between 10 am and 1 pm on Saturday, November 10th to meet Jackson, get a copy of the book and have it signed by Jackson, Author Leonie Mowat, and Illustrator Allison Sosa.

Jackson is a formerly-wild burro who was adopted from the Red Rock Canyon Herd Management Area in September of 2012 when he was a year and a half old. Jackson now helps the Southern Nevada Conservancy with their education and outreach programs. When he's not at home in his stall at nearby Cowboy Trail Rides, he enjoys leisurely walks in the Mojave Desert with his human companions. He meets lots of people at the Red Rock Canyon Visitor Center where he also does education programs for kids about land conservation, horses and burros, and life skills.

Jackson has his own Facebook page where he shares photos, videos and information. You can find out when he and his mustang buddy, Carson Blue, will be making appearances on the Red Rock Canyon website at: <https://www.redrockcanyonlv.org/>

Rural Clark County Resident Spotlight

A couple of months ago Calico Basin Residents and Rural Connections readers, Mick and Kim Roemer sent in this fun picture. They are 60 and 66 and have started riding a tandem bike around the Red Rock Loop together.

What do you do for fun? How to do enjoy the rural areas of Clark County? Show off your cool hobby or a special place in your town. Send us a picture and tell us a little bit about it and it might appear in a future issue! Email your pictures to meggan@clarkcountynv.gov

Winter is Coming – Know Where To Enjoy the Snow

WHERE TO PLAY IN THE SNOW
 Foxtail Picnic Area and other day use fee areas may be open, with restrooms & parking, when there is snow. Lee Canyon is popular for snow play, but can be very crowded on weekends and parking is limited. Find a safe place to play far from the side of the road.

DÓNDE SE PUEDE JUGAR EN LA NIEVE
 El área de picnic Foxtail y otras áreas de uso de paga que están designadas para deslizarse en la nieve, pueden estar abiertas con baños y estacionamiento cuando hay nieve. Lee Canyon es un lugar popular para jugar en la nieve, pero es un sitio que puede fácilmente tener mucha gente los fines de semana y frecuentemente no hay suficiente estacionamiento. Favor de encontrar un lugar seguro para jugar retirado de la carretera.

- SNOW PLAY SAFETY TIPS
- Never play near roads or vehicles.
 - Avoid dangerous objects like large rocks and trees.
 - Be aware of others so you don't run into them!
 - No sledding in areas with less than 12" of snow.
 - No snow play on private land or "closed" areas.

- CONSEJOS DE SEGURIDAD PARA JUGAR EN LA NIEVE
- Nunca se deslice cerca de caminos o de vehículos.
 - Evite objetos peligrosos como rocas grandes o árboles.
 - ¡Esté al tanto de otras personas para que no las atropelle al deslizarse por la nieve!
 - No se deslice sobre áreas que tienen menos de doce pulgadas de nieve.
 - No puede jugar en la nieve en áreas privadas o "cerradas".

IMPORTANT TO KNOW...
Park off the road. All wheels must be to the right of the white line (fog line) to allow emergency vehicles to pass. Illegally parked vehicles can be fined and towed.
Pack it in, pack it out. Pick up trash & keep area clean.
Pets must be kept on a leash. Please clean up after your pets.
Public Restrooms are located at open picnic areas, the Visitor Gateway, or open campgrounds.
Poor cell phone service. Pay phone is located across from Lee Meadows or Mt Charleston Fire Station.
There are no gas stations. Start with a full tank.

ES IMPORTANTE SABER QUE ...
La recepción de los teléfonos celulares no es buena en esta área. Hay teléfonos en frente a Lee Meadows.
Debe estacionarse fuera del camino. Todos los vehículos deben estar a la derecha de la línea blanca (línea de niebla) para permitir el paso de los vehículos de emergencia. Los autos que estén estacionados de manera ilegal recibirán una multa y serán retirados con una grúa.
Los baños públicos están localizados en las áreas de picnic de Foxtail y Sawmill, en el centro de visitantes y en las áreas para acampar abiertas.
Debe poner la basura en los contenedores o basureros, o debe llevarse de regreso a casa.
Las mascotas deben tener su correa puesta y deben estar amarradas en todo momento. Por favor limpie los desechos de sus mascotas.
No hay gasolineras, comience su visita con un tanque lleno.

Rocky's Road: Journey of an Orphaned Burro

Rocky turned 1 year old on October 20th. His actual birthday isn't known, but when he was found orphaned on November 9, 2017 it was estimated that he was about 3 weeks old. Since his adopted mom's birthday is on October 20th, the family decided that it would be his special day, too. The day before his birthday, he got a visit from Dave and Tara Kilpatrick – the wonderful couple that rescued him from the Desert. They brought him some yummy treats for his birthday that he shared with his horse brothers. Randy Swallow and his crew from Clark County's Channel 4 also paid a visit that day. They came out to meet Rocky, hear his story from his owners and rescuers, and get some video of the fuzzy guy for a future segment on Channel 4. Rocky got a little camera shy and didn't show off many of his goofy antics, but he was very curious about the big cameras!

Rocky isn't letting his moment in the spotlight go to his head. He still stays busy around the ranch and is working on perfecting his tote bag holding skills!

Rocky also got a new K9 friend in October. His best pal Purdy was lost to cancer back in August, but now he has a new buddy named Bodie. As a shelter rescue, Bodie wasn't too sure about Rocky at first, but the pair have become fast friends.
