

togetherforbetter

Clark County Law Library Legal Citations

Legal Citations direct you to the volume, book, and page you need to find a case, law, or discussion relating to a legal issue. A legal citation for a case may appear as: Myers v. Fleetwood Farms, 271 P2d 263. This citation contains five parts: two party names, a volume number, the title, a series number, and the page number.

This case is located in volume 271 of the Pacific Reporter 2nd on page 263. Cases often provide more than one citation, denoting that the case is available in more than one location. Citations for laws are similar, but contain fewer parts. Chapters are marked on the spine to direct you to the book you need. A citation for a Nevada Law will appear in this format:

Some common abbreviations found in citations used in the Law Library are:

NRS Nevada Revised Statutes

DCR District Court Rules

JCRCP Justice Court Rules of Civil Procedure

NRCP Nevada Rules of Civil Procedure

NRAP Nevada Rules of Appellate procedure

Az Arizona Reporter

F. Supp. Federal Supplement Reporter

Nev. Nevada Reporter

P Pacific Reporter

SE Southeastern Reporter

US United States Reports

AmJur American Jurisprudence

USCA United States Code Annotated

EDCR Eighth District Court Rules

FRCP Federal Rules of Civil Procedure

SCR Supreme Court Rules

A Atlantic Reporter

F Federal Reporter

NE Northeastern Reporter

NW Northwestern Reporter

S Southern Reporter

SW Southwestern Reporter

SCT Supreme Court Reporter

CJS Corpus Juris Secundum

If you find an unfamiliar citation or have difficulty locating information, please see the staff at the Reference Desk for assistance. Additional abbreviations may be found in Prince's Dictionary of Legal Abbreviations at the reference desk.