All activity codes start with
Session 6 - 6 Silverado Ranch

Please review our brochure to learn about our programs and activities. Advanced registration is highly recommended for all our classes, programs, events and workshops. Remember that nothing cancels a good program/activity quicker than everyone waiting until the last minute to register. If there are not enough registrations by a certain date, the program/activity may be cancelled. Coming in on the day the class/program begins won't resurrect it, so please register early for your desired program/activity. Sorry, phone registrations are not accepted. Visit the front desk or call us at 702-455-6811 for more information about programs and activities.

It is the policy of the Clark County Department of Parks and Recreation (CCPR) to practice appropriate measures when handling patron/participant misconduct within County programs and facilities. All patron/participants will be expected to adhere to the code of conduct when participating in a program or utilizing services or facilities provided by the department. CCPR reserves the right to remove patron/participants from facilities and programs via suspension or expulsion periods. Participants should show respect to staff and other participants. Using profane language, inappropriately touching another participant, and engaging in horseplay is unacceptable behavior. Participants should conduct their activities in a sportsmanship-like fashion by practicing fair play and honesty at all times.

Advanced registration is highly recommended for all our classes, events and workshops. Nothing cancels a good program quicker than everyone waiting until the last minute to register. If there are not enough registrations by a certain date, the class/program may be cancelled. Coming in on the day the class/program begins won't resurrect it, so please register early. Sorry, phone registration are not accepted.
