

Clark County Assessor's Office

Taxpayer's Bill of Rights

Each and Every Taxpayer has the Right:

To be treated with courtesy and respect.

To be treated fairly and equitably.

To be provided information on services and benefits for which they might be qualified.

To have their opinion heard.

To be fully and factually informed.

To be directed to the appropriate department or individual.

To know how their property is being appraised.

To appeal their property value informally or formally.

To expect to leave the Assessor's Office feeling as though they were served in a competent and professional manner.
