 - Trustee’s deeds are taxable on the bid amount plus costs (if not foreclosing on first mortgage include first mortgage as part of costs).
 - 3b For Deeds in Lieu of Foreclosure Only * – the Total Value (3a) is the amount of the unpaid debt, same as the amount that will appear on 1099c. Insert at (3b) the fair market value of the property per NRS 375.010.
 - Only Complete this section if the document qualifies for the Deed In Lieu allowance
 - 3c Transfer Tax Value – Subtract line 3b from line 3a to determine taxable value 3c.

4. If you wish to claim an exemption, please refer to exemptions listed in NRS 375.090 and insert exemption number here.

Exemption 4 Guidelines

Guidelines for the Transfer To or From a Trust

The State of Nevada, Department of Taxation has revised the guidelines for the administration of exemption from RPTT under NRS 375.090 (7): A transfer of title to or from a trust without consideration if a certificate of trust is presented at the time of transfer. To qualify for this exemption, a copy of the TRUST or a certificate of trust must be presented at the time of recording. Whether the item is a declaration of trust or a certificate of trust, it must contain the name and date of the trust and be signed by all the currently acting trustees of the trust. If the item is a certificate of trust, the signatures of the trustees must be acknowledged.

If the transfer is to or from a business entity or to or from a party not named in the trust as a trustor or trustee of the trust, business entity documentation or relationship documentation to the trustor may be required to verify that the transfer is without consideration.

Certificate of Trust

The taxpayer must present a Certificate of Trust or the actual Trust Instrument at the time of transfer if claiming exemption 7. NRS 164.400 and 164.410 regulate the terms under which the certificate can be accepted including, but not limited to, the elements that must be present to qualify the certificate. The Certificate of Trust must contain the following:

1. A statement that the trust has not been revoked or amended to make any representation contained in the certification incorrect.
2. Be signed by all currently acting trustees.
3. The trustees' signatures must be notarized.

Below, we have summarized the other elements that the Certificate of Trust should contain:

- A. The identity of the creator of the trust and each currently acting trustee
- B. The powers of the trustee(s) and any restrictions imposed upon them in dealing with assets of the trust
- C. The revocability or irrevocability of the trust and the person holding the power to revoke it
- D. If there is more than one trustee, whether all of the trustees must exercise the powers of the trustee
- E. The form in which title to assets of the trust are to be taken.
- F. The certificate should state whether the identifying number of the trust is a social security number or an employer identification number.

This document is not recorded, nor is it made public. Once the trust is verified, the documents are returned to the customer or destroyed.

Estate Planning is at the Heart of Exemption #7. The State of Nevada, Department of Taxation has advised us that the transfers to or from estate planning trusts (i.e., discretionary, living/intervivos trusts) without consideration are exempt under NRS 375.090(7). Per their guidance, a transfer to any other type of trust may be taxable. Please call and speak with a member of the audit team if you have any question as to the taxability of a transfer.

If you have any questions regarding Real Property Transfer Tax, please contact the Clark County Recorder's Office at: (702) 455-4336 or send an email to: CCORAuditTeam@ClarkCountyNV.Gov

Supporting Documentation for Exemptions 1 & 9

Due to recent developments, we have found it necessary to reiterate that the documentation required in support of exemption under NRS 375.090(1) and NRS 375.090(9) are business entity documents that show who the owners of the business entity are at the time of recording. The types of business entities and their owners are:

Type of Business Entity	Owner(s)
Limited Liability Company (LLC)	member(s)
Corporation (Corp/Inc)	stockholder(s)
Partnerships (LP, GP, LLP)	partners

Documents that show only the manager(s), resident agent(s), officer(s) or incorporator(s) are not sufficient to support an exemption.

The following are examples of the types of documents that usually show ownership for a particular type of business entity. These are only suggestions, so please review your supporting documentation for proof of ownership before the transfer is submitted for recording.

For Limited Liability Companies

Operating Agreements

Articles of Organization

Most Current and Complete Federal Tax Return

For Corporations

Stock Certificates and Stock Ledgers

IRS Form 2553

Most Current and Complete Federal Tax Return

Partnerships, Limited Partnerships, and Limited Liability Partnerships

Partnership Agreement

Most Current and Complete 1065 Federal Tax Return

Please be aware that the documentation provided in support of an exemption is not recorded or made public but either returned or destroyed.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation. If you have any questions, please contact the Clark County Recorder's Office at: (702) 455-4336 or CCORAuditTeam@ClarkCountyNV.Gov

REAL PROPERTY TRANSFER TAX

OVER THE COUNTER AUDITS

Effective Thursday, July 1, 2010, the Office of the Clark County Recorder will audit transfers of interest for real property transfer tax prior to or at the time of recording. Customers must include documentation to support the value declared and/or exemption claimed at the time of recording. This procedure will improve customer service by reducing the need to produce and provide supporting documents at a later date.

For your convenience, a list of the exemptions for real property transfer tax and the suggested supporting documentation are provided.

To support the value declared for real property transfer tax purposes, please provide whichever of the following is applicable: Closing Statement, HUD Statement, Purchase Agreement, Bid Instructions and Title Guarantee or the Auction Receipt.

Each transfer is unique, and the documentation suggested is merely that, suggested documentation, and may not apply to your transfer. However, providing documentation in support of the exemption or value declared will allow us to record your document as presented. Failure to provide the supporting documentation may result in the document being returned to you unrecorded.

If you have additional questions, please contact the Clark County Recorder's Office Audit Division at (702) 455-5587 or E-Mail
